

MORE ABOUT DR ANDERSON

Dr Duncan Anderson is a vascular surgeon practicing in Cape Town, South Africa. He is a Christian with strong ethics and family values, married in 2002 with a son and triplet daughters.

Dr Duncan Anderson has a strong sense of commitment and community, having been a Discoverer scout and assistant scout master, qualified lifeguard (Lifesaving South Africa) and volunteer firefighter for 12 years. His keen physical interests include hiking, martial arts (1st Kyu brown belt Shukokai Karate) and weight-training.

Dr Duncan Anderson was raised in Fish Hoek and matriculated from Fish Hoek Senior High School with an A-aggregate in 1990. This academic excellence was furthered at the University of Cape Town, both under-graduate and post-graduate (Bachelor of Medicine & Bachelor of Surgery 1996, Fellowship of the College of Surgeons of South Africa 2005, Certificate in Vascular Surgery 2007).

Dr Duncan Anderson extensive surgical experience, having worked in the Eastern Cape before returning to Cape Town. His extensive executive skills setting up and running a sole private clinical practice (2007) and Wound Care Clinic (2009). He is friendly and down-to-earth nature is valued highly by both his patients and colleagues.